REFUND OF MEMBERSHIP FEES POLICY

If a member passes away prior to June 1st of a year for which they have paid membership fees, then upon written request made to the Board of Directors by that deceased member's estate, the General Manager will refund the membership that has been paid by that member for the year. (Provide proof of death is submitted). Consideration will also be given by the General Manager to any request by the spouse of such deceased member, who has also paid a membership fee for that year, for a refund of their membership fees as well.
